"Responsible, Proactive and Self-taught"

I'm 22 years old, I'm a person focused on the activities that must be carried out, when I program I love to test my products (software) and find errors that I can correct or aspects that can be improved. I like to work in a team because it is easier to achieve the main objective. Personally, I am a jovial and respectful person with others and their opinions, I like to play sports like soccer, volleyball and basketball.
